(ROUND ROCK, Texas) – This week, Texans for Lawsuit Reform (TLR PAC) announced its endorsement of Larry Gonzales in the Williamson County-based Texas House District 52 Republican Run-Off Election.

TLR PAC is the political arm of Texans for Lawsuit Reform, the state's largest civil justice reform organization. TLR is a bipartisan, volunteer-led coalition with more than 17,000 supporters residing in 869 Texas communities and representing 1,266 different businesses, professions and trades.

“I am pleased we have their support,” Larry Gonzales said. He added, “I have stood alongside TLR, and other Texas leaders, to defend our legal system from those who make it a mockery by filing frivolous lawsuits that drive up costs to businesses, consumers, and taxpayers.”

Richard J. Trabulsi, TLR PAC Chairman, said in the endorsement, “Larry Gonzales is a young, independent-thinking and articulate leader who will be a great asset to the Texas House. He is committed to the principles of lawsuit reform and will work for the best interests of House District 52 and all of Texas.”

“Larry will be an effective advocate for his constituents, being able to call on his experiences in the private sector as well as his past work for the Lt. Governor, the Attorney General and several Members of the House of Representatives,” Trabulsi concluded.

“This is no surprise,” Larry Gonzales said of the TLR PAC endorsement. In contrast, Larry Gonzales noted that his opponent “is a poster child for lawsuit abuse. His lawsuit happy ways have cost taxpayers of Williamson County countless amounts of tax dollars and time while he unnecessarily burdens and drains our judicial system.”
