TLR PAC Endorses Larry Gonzales In Texas House District 52

(Austin, TX) Texans for Lawsuit Reform PAC announced its endorsement of Larry Gonzales today in the Republican Run-Off Election in House District 52. The election is scheduled for April 13. In making the endorsement, TLR PAC Chairman Richard J. Trabulsi, Jr. said:

“Larry Gonzales is a young, independent-thinking and articulate leader who will be a great asset to the Texas House. He is committed to the principles of lawsuit reform and will work for the best interests of House District 52 and all of Texas. Larry will be an effective advocate for his constituents, being able to call on his experiences in the private sector as well as his past work for the Lt. Governor, the Attorney General and several Members of the House of Representatives.”

Gonzales is the owner of a graphics company in Round Rock, where he has lived with his family for 13 years. Before launching his business, Gonzales served as Assistant Vice Chancellor for Governmental Relations for the Texas State University System (TSUS) as a liaison to the Texas Legislature and other state agencies.

House District 52 is located in Williamson County.

TLR PAC is the political arm of Texans for Lawsuit Reform, the state's largest civil justice reform organization. TLR is a bipartisan, volunteer-led coalition with more than 17,000 supporters residing in 869 Texas communities and representing 1,266 different businesses, professions and trades.
